

Designing Watercolors for Success 3-Day Workshop

with Barbara Benda

June 14-16th, 2022

North Dakota State College of Science -

Fargo Campus

Fargo, ND

Join Barbara Benda, professional artist and instructor, as she provides her unique curriculum for designing paintings, rather than copying photographs. With 36 years of teaching experience, she simplifies complex art concepts so all learners may succeed.

You will learn:

- How to create value studies using a variety of compositions and formats
- How to plan the focal point by using artistic principles
- How to create contrast by using lights and darks strategically
- How to manage color schemes for greatest impact
- How to infuse your personality and life experience into your work

Time: 9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. daily (with an hour lunch on your own).

Location: Room 128, NDSCS Fargo campus- 1305 19th Avenue North, Fargo, ND (across the street from the Fargo Dome.) Free parking available in front of building.

Participant profile: All levels of learners, ages 15 and up, who have completed Barbara's Beginning Drawing and Watercolor Workshop. This prerequisite is required to assure all participants have received the same foundation to proceed with this workshop.

Class size: Limited to the first 12 paid registrations

Class layout: All students will have their own tables placed several feet apart. Masks are optional.

Please register and pay by June 8th, 2022. The first 12 paid registrations will secure a spot. Checks will not be cashed until the workshop minimum is reached. Participants will be notified when checks are cashed.

Cost: $275 will cover instruction and handouts for 3 days. The first 12 paid registrations will secure a spot.

Supplies: Participants must bring their own supplies from the previous workshop Beginning Drawing and Watercolor. The supply list is located on the website at www.barbarabendanagle.com Use the Supply Checklist on the website to assure you have all you need for this workshop.

Additional Supplies: Bring 10 or fewer of your own printed photographs of subjects you would like to paint. It is important that these photos are taken by you and not from another photographer or from a magazine. Please print out pictures both in black and white and in color. Please do not bring Ipads or phones for photo reference.

If you need special accommodations, please contact Beverly, Workshop Assistant, at 701-610-9529.
